1 - Hatred's Human Form

Not exactly a rhymy poem, hell I dont know what type of poem it is.
But I have been wanting to post it for awhile now. Flames will be flat out ignored.

If hatred had a human form...

His hair would be as pitch as a raven's wings in the midnight sky,

His eyes would bleed darker and deeper than the seas of hell,

His voice; as deep and cutting as the scythe of Death,

His skin would be the tone of marble,

His face; as solem and expressionless; holding no sympathy like the angel who marks the place of a fallen soul....
