1 - Pool Training

Fweeee!!!! Gold's whistle blew and the battle began.

"Okay, let's go Wizard!" Crystal said releasing her Murkrow.

"Come on Rainbow!" Brendan said as the Beautifly emerged from its ball. It was a nice day in the Dana region. The battle was taking place at the pool, a common training ground for the gym leaders since Gold had a job there as a lifeguard. Whenever there was no one there, it was training time. (nobody really ever came to the pool because gold was lazy and kept it usually closed)

Sitting in the bleachers nearby were Jessie, who was a fire gym leader and Heather (Psychic). "Good luck!" they both shouted making victory signs with their hands!

"Let's finish it, Wizard, Shadow Ball!" Crystal ordered with a flick of her red jacket sleeve.

"Krow!" Wizard created a dark ball and lunged it towards Rainbow. Direct hit!

"Rainbow, counter attack with Silver Wind!" Brendan commanded.

"Beautifly!" Sparkly wind filled the entire pool room.

"Ack! I can't see a thing!" Heather screamed. After the wind had cleared, Brendan pushed his red scarf out of his face. "Huh?" he said as he was surprised that he did not see Wizard.

"Okay Wizard jump out and hit it with a Aerial Ace!" the dark gym leader ordered.

"Murkrow!" It splashed out of the pool water and was seen only for a second.

"What???! On no! Rainbow, look out!" Brendan cried. Too late. In another flash the Dark/flying type pokemon appeared again and hit Rainbow with a powerful Aerial Ace. Rainbow fell to the ground with swirls in it eyes.

"You did well Rainbow," said the flying gym leader, "take a rest." Rainbow returned into its Pokeball.

"Okay, who's up next!" Crystal announced.

"I'll go!" Heather volunteered.

"But Heather, you only have Psychic types. It's gonna be had to win against Dark types," Jessie warned.

"No matter!" She said flipping back her blonde hair, her blue eyes sparkling. She walked to the other end of the pool, ready to battle.

"This battle will be between Psychic leader Hather and Dark leader Crystal," Gold said through his megaphone. "No time limit, let the battle begin!" Fweeee!!!!

"Go Daydreamer!" Heather said as she let out her Gardevoir.

"Go Blade!" Crystal did the same, and out came a Weavile.

"Blade, Ice Beam!

"Weav!" Blade emitting the strong ice attack right towards Gardevoir.

"Quick Daydreamer, Protect! A sheild formed around Daydreamer and sent the ice beam bouncing in all directions.

"Aiiee! Watch it!" Jessie said sternly as she hopped up and down to avoid the ice beam with came close to hitting her maroon colored boots.

"Okay Daydreamer! Thundershock!"

"Gardevoir!" A power electric shock hit Blade and sent it falling into the pool.

"Uh-oh," Brendan said as he watched Blade start to sink.

"Ah-ha! Blade ice beam on the surface water!" Crystal said snapping her fingers indicating an idea.

"Vile!" Blade said as the water on top of the pool's surface harden into thick ice.

"What's she doing? Blade's trapped under the ice" Jessie asked Brendan.

"I get it! Daydreamer can't see Blade now and doesn't know when to attack!"

"Okay Blade, jump out and hit it with Shadow claw!" Crystal ordered.

"Weav!" Blade broke through the ice and a dark purple mist formed around it's right claws. It struck Daydreamer with a one hit K.O.

"Ah well," Heather said.

"Practice makes perfect!" Brendan and Heather said together. Blade smile and made a victory sign.

"Weavile!"

2 - Regan - Arctic Badge Part 1

"Hmmm..." Mimi said looking at her poorly drawn map. Her white shirt with a red stripe, and black pants were covered with a little bit of dirt from walking. Her hair, which hung loosely in a ponytail, dangled in a messy heap. "It says I'm in Freezym City," She looked around, the buildings all unknown to her.

"Where's the Gym?"

She started walking ahead, her eyes fixed on the map, yet she didn't know what was about to happen next. A girl about 3 years older than her with brown hair, a blue shirt, white hat with a red stripe, and a red skirt, slammed into her head on, causing the map to fly outta her hands.

"Hehe, sorry! Wait, what are you doing here Mimi?" the girl asked.

"Huh...?Oh, Rhia! Hey! Crystal sent me this postcard and I decided to come here and earn some badges." Mimi answered.

"Cool, Crystal sent me a postcard too. Are you looking for the Gym?" Rhia questioned.

"Yeah,"

"Well I am too, let's go,"

***

"Hey look, there's the gym!" Rhia said in triumph. There stood the Gym, a big blue building that looked like it was encased in ice. They both entered the gym looking around for the Leader.

"Hello?" They both called.

"Heya!" shouted a blonde headed girl wearing a gray jacket, a long pink shirt with a belt, purple pants, and black boots. She jumped off a crystal like sculpture. "Are you two looking for a battle?"

"Yes...are you the leader?"

"Yep! My name is Regan and I'm the all powerful ice type leader of Freezym City! Are you two gonna battle together or shall I knock you out separately?"

"We'll go together and beat you!" Rhia protested.

"Excellent! Time for a battle!" Regan cheered. She jumped onto another crystal like sculpture and told Rhia and Mimi to each get on one of the ice platform in the pond in front of them. The pond was scattered with all types of platforms made of ice, some taller and wider than others.

"This battle will be between trainers Rhia and Mimi and Gym Leader Regan. No time limit. This will be a four-on-four battle with 2 Pokemon per each round. Only the trainers are allowed substitutions. Let the battle begin!" the intercom announced. A bell rung that began the fight.

"Go Icee and Snowy!" Regan said releasing her Pokemon. A Glalie and a snowy white Dewgong appeared.

"Let's go Taunt!" Mimi said as she let out her Banette.

"You too, Crystal!" Rhia chimed in, letting out her Blaziken.

"Heh, that's funny, you nicknamed your the Blaziken the same as my sister's name." Mimi laughed.

"Enough talk! Icee, Ice Beam, Snowy, dive into the water!" Regan ordered.

"Glalie!" A powerful Ice Beam shot from the Glalie's ears and straight towards Crystal.

"Crystal, hurry, jump onto one of the platforms!" Rhia said. The Blaziken jumped high onto a very tall, narrow platform.

"Taunt, now use Metronome!" Mimi shouted.

"Banette!" It wiggled its finger to produce a Thunder attack which hit Icee with supreme accuracy. Icee stumbled for a second, but then got back into position.

"Snowy, use Hyper Beam on the platform that Crystal is standing on!"

"Dewgong!" Snowy shot a orangish-yellow beam at the bottom of the platform, which caused it to crack.

"Crystal, use the platforms to get to Icee and then use Blaze Kick!" Rhia commanded. Crystal quickly hopped over the platforms aimed its Blaze Kick right at Icee.

"Icee, quick use protect! Snowy, use surf!" A sheild formed around Icee, repelling Crystal's Blaze kick and sent it flying into the air. The water was now getting choppy because of Snowy's surf. A huge wave hit Taunt and caused it to slam against the wall.

"Okay, Snowy use Blizzard on Taunt!" Reagan exclaimed.

"Dew!" The gym was now filled with snow and the water had become ice. Neither Crystal or Taunt was seen.

"That took care of them!" Regan chuckled.

"You think!" Rhia and Mimi said together.

"Taunt Shadow Ball!" Mimi said.

"Crystal use Flamethrower on the Shadow Ball!" Rhia ordered. The combanation produced a dark fiery ball that lunged towards Icee and Snowy.

"Look out!" Regan screamed.

"Glalie!"

"Gong!"

TO BE CONTINUED...

3 - Regan - Arctic Badge Part 2

Wham! The Shadow Ball Flamethrower combo hit Icee with a bang! Smoke filled the room which made the pokemon unrecognized to their trainers.

"Good use of Substitute, Taunt!" Mimi said.

"Banette!" it said happily.

"Icee, are you okay?" Regan asked her fainted Glalie, which had smashed into the wall and had made a larger crater.

"Gla..lie..." Icee muttered.

"You did a good job, now have a rest," she said, returning Icee to its Pokeball. She looked back at Rhia and Mimi. "That was a good combo, but not enough to beat me! Snowy, Surf!"

"Dewgong!" Snowy produced a wave so high that it was no longer seen in the rushing water.

"Taunt, use Metronome!" Mimi ordered. Taunt wiggled its finger but produced a Psych Up attack that was rather pointless at the moment.

"Snowy, now jump outta the wave and use Hyper Beam!"

"Dew!" It shot outta the wave in a flash and produced a Hyper Beam.

"Taunt use Metronome!" Mimi said sharply. The Banette wiggled its finger once more and did a Mirror Coat attack a second before the Hyper Beam hit. It bounced back and hit Snowy with full power, causing it to stumble into the water.

"While its down, Crystal, Flamethrower!"

"You too, Taunt, Night Shade!"

The double attack hit Snowy with a burst of purple and red light. Snowy laid unconscious in the water.

"Not bad but try this out!" Regan smirked as she returned her Dewgong. "Go Milkshake and Pearl!" She released two Pokeballs and out came a Freezeon, the newly discovered Ice evo of Eevee, and a Cloyster.

"Milshake, Ice ball!"

"Freezeon!" It produced an Ice ball about the size of a large baseball and hurtled it towards Crystal.

"Crystal, destroy the Ice Ball with Blaze Kick!" Rhia ordered.

"Blaze!" Bright flames shot out as the Blaziken practically melted the Ice ball with its Blaze Kick.

"Now, quickly, Fire Spin!"

"Blaziken!" it shouted as it created a spinning wheel of Fire and projected it towards Milkshake.

Milkshake tried to block it with another Ice Ball but its effort failed and it fainted right where it was standing.

"3 down, 1 to go!" Regan sneered. "Cloyster, Icicle Spear!"

"Cloyster.." it said menacingly as sharp points of ice rained down upon Taunt.

"Ba-nette!" Taunt cried as the icicles rained down harder. Pearl produced one last Icicle Spear that hit Taunt on the mark, and left it lying unconscious on one of the ice platforms.

"Return, Taunt!" Mimi said as she returned the Banette into its rightful Pokeball. "Hmmm...Let's go Magmag!" She threw the Pokeball and a new Pokemon appeared on the platform.

"Quilava!" it cried as bursting red and yellow flames protruded from its head and tail.

"Blaziken, Flame Thrower!"

"Magmag, Fire Spin!" The two fire attacks formed together to create a dazzling line of fire.

"Pearl, close your shell!" Regan quickly commanded.

"Cloyster..." its spiky shell closed around its face as the fire rained down upon it.

"Hey, wait a minute." Mimi started to say, "A Cloyster's shell can't protect it from everything. If we hold out long enough, the heat will get so intense inside the shell that it'll hafta open up and that's when we attack!"

"That's a clever idea!" Rhia agreed.

"Okay guys turn it up full blast!" Rhia and Mim said triumphantly.

"Blaze!"

"Quila!" The flames got so bright that they were almost blinding.

"Don't waste you energy, Cloyster's shell can protect it form anything!" Regan said with pride. She glanced at Pearl and saw the hinge of its shell start to crack open. "Pearl, c'mon, keep your shell closed!"

"A little bit longer!" Rhia grunted.

"Cloyster!" It opened up its shell, exhausted by the heat, and was vulnerable for at least a minute which was just enough time for an attack.

"Blaziken, Flamethrower!"

"Magmag, jump onto Crystal's Flamethrower." Mimi said while Rhia looked at her as if she were crazy. Magmag ran onto of the Flamethrower and was nearly 3 feet away from Pearl.

"I see, the Flamethrower is acting as a bridge across the pool!" Rhia exclaimed.

"Okay, Magmag QUICK ATTACK!"

"Qui..." It ran so fast that a white light shone from behind it.

"LAVA!" WHAM!

"Cloy...ster..." it fell over with knocked out eyes.

"Wow, that was good..." Regan said in disbelief.

***

"Here you go guys, the Arctic Badge." Regan said as she handed both of them a badge that was in the shape of a diamond gemstone that was mostly light purple except for a line of white at the top that was suppose to look like snow.

"You guys were great, are you headed towards Mytha City?"

"Yup," they both said together.

"Cool! That's Silver's gym! Ahhh...Silver!" she exclaimed with hearts in her eyes.

"Yeah, we'll just be going now..." Rhia said with a sweatdrop.

"Okay, take care!" Regan waved as they headed onto the route.

"Wonder who Silver is?" Mimi asked.

"He shouldn't be do hard to beat..Rhia remarked.

4 - Silver - Element Badge Part 1

"Abby, go! Blizzard one last time!" said a girl with shoulder length hair brown hair. She was wearing baggy shorts with a large shirt that has Summer 06 printed across it. The Absol shot a freezing blizzard attack right at the unsuspecting Salamence.

"Okay now THUNDER!!" the girl ordered.

"Absol!" The room flashed with bolts of electricity as Salamence howled in pain. No longer able to fly, it tumbled down and smashed into the ground below.

"Yeah! I tell ya don't mess with Amanda Thompson! Great job Abby!" she congratulated her Absol with a thumbs up.

"Hmm.." said the orange haired boy on the other side of the battle field. "You still an amateur (bad spelling!) though.."

"WHAT! HOLY CRAP! I just beat your pants! No gimme my badge right now or I'm gonna put a hurtin' on you!" Amanda screamed.

"Whatever." he said coldly as he took a badge out from under his cape and threw it to her as if it was a shuriken. It bounced off the ground and almost into Amanda's face. She picked it up and examined it. It was triangular and had the colors of the elements fire, lightning, and ice, the elements of dragons. Amanda sneered and headed towards the door.

***

Mimi and Rhia dragged themselves to the city entrance.

"Man, I'm so tired." Mimi complained.

"You can't be tired! We hafta challenged the gym!" Rhia said with confidence. She put her fist into the air.

"But first can we get something to eat?" Mimi said. Rhia did an anime fall but got back up.

"Yeah, I guess we can." she said with a sweatdrop. They started along the path when Rhia sighted the Mytha City Gym.

"Or we can challenge the gym first!" she said abruptly and yanked Mimi who said "ugwahh!" in surprise." Rhia didn't pay attention and rammed right into Amanda who was just leaving the gym. They toppled over into one large heap.

"Uh okay, I don't know you, but you kinda CRUSHING me!" Amanda said irritably.

"Sorry but it was all Mrs. Impatient's fault!" Mimi snapped.

"heh heh!" Rhia laughed. "We're just here to battle the gym leader!" They all got up and dusted themselves off.

"Really? I already did! It was a pain! I come inside with you for support! Anyway, my name's Amanda. What about you?"

"I'm Rhia," Rhia said, adjusting her hat which was askew from the pileup.

"And I'm Mimi. My real name is Constance but prefer to call me anything but that."

"Cool! Let's go!" Amanda said. They walked inside the large gym. Their footsteps echoed as the door shut behind them.

"I challenge the gym leader her!" Rhia shouted.

"Me too!" Mimi said.

"And I'm just here for support!" yelled Amanda.

"Whatever," said a voice from above. The threesome looked up and saw the gym leader they were about to face. He was standing on a pillar used for flying type battles.

"Heh..I bet I can beat you with both hands behind my back!" Rhia sneered.

"You think too confident." he said, flicking his cape behind him. "Fine, so, double battle it is? Sure, it'll give me a chance to knock out both of you at the same time."

"Sure thing, SILVER," Rhia said with a laugh.

"You already know him?" Amanda said surprisingly.

"Yeah, he helped me and some of my friends get their way outta Kanto. But now I'm here to kick you to the ground!" she bragged triumphantly.

"Let's begin the battle, or are you too cocky?" Silver murmured with a glint in his eye. Rhia became furious. "YOU WANNA PIECE OUTTA ME! LET'S BATTLE THEN!!!"

***

"This will be a 3 round battle with 2 pokemon per round. Only the trainers are allowed substitutions. Begin!"

"Go April!" Mimi said releasing her Lapras into the water arena.

"You too Plushie!" Rhia said letting out her Dragonite.

"Let's go Kingdra!" said Silver as he let out the large pokemon. "Kingdra, agility!" he commanded.

Kingdra moved like a lightning bolt across the water. The pool started to get choppy and they realized what was happening. Silver was using Kingdra's agility to make a whirlpool. April started to get sucked into the trap.

"April, Blizzard!" April froze the whirlpool with its Blizzard attack but Kingdra was nowhere to be seen.

"Kingdra Ice Beam and Dragon breath!" Silver ordered.

"Dra!" The double attack rammed Plushie into the wall and sent it falling into the water. "Okay Kingdra, twister!" Kingdra whipped up a ferocious twister right towards the falling Plushie.

"Okay Plushie, Dragonbreath!" Rhia commanded. Plushie got out of its dizzy moment and spewed out a dragonbreath. The two attacks were equal and each kept on lunging their attacks.

"Kingdra, go!" Silver shouted.

"Plushie, full blast!" Rhia said, clenching her teeth.

"Dragonite!"

"Kingdra!" The waves had settled down when all of a sudden a figure lashed out a Kingdra.

TBC...

"We've reached our destination!" The two got off the Aerodactyl and Rusty came swooping down outta the clouds.

"Okay..I'm confused." Crystal exclaimed.

"Brendan, you keep that mental Skarmory of yours away from civilized people when it's in CRAZY MODE"!!!!!" Heather shouted, pointing a finger right into Brendan's face.

"Wha?" he said, scratching his pilot cap.

"Never mind, Heather's being Heather again." Wally said.

"OH come on!" Heather exclaimed.

"Okay Fossil and Rusty, return." Brendan ordered as he sent them back into there Pokeballs.

"I heard Rhia's in the Dana region." Heather said. Brendan stopped cold in his tracks. He turned around and put his fists into the air, laughing meniacally.

"BWAHAHAHAHAHAHA!! I shall destroy her!"

"Ummm..." everyone said uncertainly.

***

"Go Flygon, Dragonbreath!" Silver commanded. A Flygon appeared so quickly and knocked April down before it had a chance to attack Kingdra.

"April, dive!" Mimi ordered. April dived underwater and settled under Kingdra without being noticed. "Go, blizard!" April let out a chilling blizzard attack. "Holy crap, don't forget I'm in here too ya know! Don't turn me into a Amanda-sicle!" Amandan whimpered in the cold.

"Flygon, protect Kingdra!" Flygon flew in front of Kingdra and used Protect. The Blizzard bounced off the sheild and nearly hit Plushie.

"Plushie, Hydro Pump!" Rhia cried. Plushie let out a powerful jet of water.

"Flygon, Rampage!"

"Rampage?" Rhia and Mimi said together. "What kind of move is that?"

"Oh, you'll see once it does the damage." Silver sneered. Flygon started to glow red.

"Plushie fly after Flygon!" Rhia said. The two dragon Pokemon were chasing each other in the air while April and Kingdra battle below in the water.

"Good God, I wonder what that Rampage attack is gonna do?" Amanda pondered. Flygon started to glow a brighter red. "Yo, what's the deal with the laser light show?" she shouted.

"Plushie, Hydro Pump! Flygon avoided the water blast.

"Okay Flygon, now Rampage!" Silver said. Flygon started flying, faster than a bullet, glowing a brighter red each time it got faster. It beared its claws and prepared for the hit.

TBC.....

6 - I Pity The Fools

"I'm soooo tired," Benny whined.

"Shut up and keep walking," Gary snapped back. The two aspiring trainers were walking through a forest and they seemed to have gotten lost.

"Benny, lemme see the map,"

"Here you go," Benny replied as he sat on top of an old tree stump. A curious Nincada crawled out from a hole in the tree stump.

"EEEEEEEEEEEEAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHHH!!!!!!!" he screamed.

"Pipe down, I'm trying to find my way around here," Gary said, looking at his friend who had curled up into a ball shivering against a tree (not a stump).

"Why'd we even hafta come here?" Benny said.

"Cause I heard Rhia was here and I wanna get all the badges before her. 'Sides, I also heard that most of her friends are gym leaders here." Gary answered, turning the map sideways.

"I also heard she likes you!" Benny chimed.

"I've heard that too, but I don't care." he traced the route on the map with his finger. "Here's the path to the nearest town, Cinder Town. Let's go."

"Aw, man." his friend groaned.

The two were near the end of the forest where a flamethrower blast nearly missed them. Up ahead was a girl with a Rapidash.

"Okay, now Fire Spin!" she commanded! The horse whinnied and let out a spiraling blast of fire. The attack missed again as Benny shouted, "Whaddya think you're doing?"

"Hm?" the girl turned around.

"You nearly blew our heads with fire!" Gary complained.

"And we're never gonna get outta here!" Benny wailed as he sunk down onto the ground in a state of depression.

"Never mind him," Gary said with a sweatdrop.

"Well, I can take ya'll back to my place!" the girl offered.

"I think that'll be the wisest idea," He replied looking down at Benny.

***

"Here we are!" the girl announced.

"But this is the gym," Benny said.

"Yeah, and a gym leader fits best with a gym!" she replied. "And seeing how shocked you all are my name's Jesie and I rule this down with my awesome fire Pokemon! So if ya wanna get some rest, one of ya'll is gonna hafta battle me!"

"Will I get a badge for it?" Gary asked.

"Yes,"

"I'm there!"

"Can I just have a nice couch to lay down on?" Benny whined.

"You're a wimp..." Jesie said.

"I know," Benny said quietly.

***

"Ticonderoga!" Heather shouted randomly into the sky.

"What?!" Crystal said.

"I dunno, I saw that name on a pencil," she replied.

"um..." Crystal thought outloud.

"Anyway, where are we going?" Heather questioned.

"For a walk,"

They strolled down a hill where an angry Dodrio came sprinting right towards them.

"Dodrio, lose!" Crystal shouted. Heather and Crystal jumped out of the way and exchanged glances.

Soon, Brendan came following behind.

"Hi guys, bye guys!" he said rapidly chasing the Pokemon.

"Uh, hi?!" Crystal shouted back. A minute passed. Heather screamed "And we're NOT guys!"

7 - Lunches, Battles, Races, and Apples!

"Hmmm.." said Crystal, looking at Heather's lunch. There sat a turkey sandwich in a plastic container with the word "TURKEY" written out on it. "Did you know turkey spelled backwards is "yekrut"?"

"What?! Okay, that was random." Heather replied. She held up the sandwich and pretended she was handing it to someone. "Would you like some of this delicious yekrut?" she joked.

"Well, it does make it sound less appetizing..." Crystal mentioned. She unwrapped her lunch and started to eat.

***

"This is not going as smoothly as I thought..." Amanda mumbled as she watched Rhia and Mimi try to keep up with the lightning fast Dragon Pokemon. "GO GO GO!" she screamed.

"We're working on it!" Rhia snapped. Flygon hit PLushie with a Rampage attack and sent it crashing into the wall. Bits of concrete flew everywhere. PLushie struggled to get up, shoving rocks out of its path.

"Plushie, don't give up! Now go!"

"April, hit with ICE BEAM!!!!" Mimi ordered. April focused its Ice Beam towards Kingdra.

"Kingdra, dive!" Silver ordered.

"HAH! You fell for it!" Mimi yelled, cockingly.

"What the..." Silver said uncertainly, looking at the babbling girl. April quickly turned her head and hit Flygon full power with an Ice Beam.

"BOO-YAH!" Amanda cheered.

"Plushie Hyper Beam while it's down!" Rhia commanded. PLushie hit Flygon with a blast of orange and yellow. Flygon splashed into the pool, dust filling the air. As the dust cleared, Flygon floated back to the surface, fainted.

"Yeah!" Amanda, Rhia, and Mimi shouted in unison. Silver returned Flygon to its Pokeball and sent out another Pokemon. It looked like a blue dragon morphed with a dog.

"Ecteon!" it bellowed.

"Whoa!" Rhia said.

"That's the new evolution of Eevee! It's a dragon type!" Mimi explained.

"Ecteon, Dragon Claw!" Ecteon charged toward April with its claws glowing. It clawed at April and jumped off its shell onto the other side of the arena. April maintained balance and fired a Hydro Pump at Ecteon. It easily evaded the attack and waited for its next attack.

"Kingdra, headbutt!" Rhia, Mimi and Amanda totally forgot that Kingdra was underwater. Kingdra hit right at the pit of April's stomach so hard that it hit the ceiling. It tumbled down in an enormous wave of water. Everyone got hit with a decent amount of water. Amanda looked at her drenched clothes. "Aww, man! I just had these washed!"

***

Heather threw away the rest of her lunch and she and Crystal both headed to the rest center.

"Well, I'm bored." Heather sighed.

"I saw a Pokemon race yesterday...why don't we have a race?" Crystal suggested.

"Yeah that sounds awesome! Go Star!" Heather said releasing her Espeon.

"Come on, Shadow!" Crystal released her Umbreon.

"Whoever wins has to buy lunch tomorrow." Heather bet.

"Deal, finish line is the bottom of Mt. Ozone." Crystal agreed.

"On your mark get set...."

"Go!"

Brendan was sleeping under a large tree. An apple jiggled from a branch and hit him on the head. "Hngrgh?" he grumbled. He looked up and saw a figure of a Pokemon looming above him. It flew down and picked up the apple in its hands.

"Well, hello Latia." he said half asleep. Crystal's Latias, gave him a smile and started to eat the apple. It stoppd and flew near the top of the tree again. Brendan stood up, wondering what she was doing. Suddenly, another apple fell out of the tree. Brendan caught it with on hand. Latia gave him a nod, meaining he could have the apple. Brendan thanked her and they both sat under the tree, eating their apples.

"Well, hello Latia." he said half asleep. Crystal's Latias, gave him a smile and started to eat the apple. It stoppd and flew near the top of the tree again. Brendan stood up, wondering what she was doing. Suddenly, another apple fell out of the tree. Brendan caught it with on hand. Latia gave him a nod, meaining he could have the apple. Brendan thanked her and they both sat under the tree, eating their apples.

8 - Win Some, Lose Some

After what seemed like hours of battling, Silver's last two Pokemon, a Salamence and a Dragonite laid unconscious on the battlefield. The walls were all damaged from various Pokemon slamming into them from random attacks.

"Tough break, you're gonna hafta get those walls repaired..." Amanda sneered. Rhia and Mimi returned April and Plushie and Silver tossed their badges toward them.

"How does it feel to lose, WIMP?!" Amanda shouted. Silver just made a menacing glare.

"So immature," he muttered under his breath.

"Hah! YOU'RE just in DENIAL! See ya in the Loser'S CIRCLE!" she replied.

"Awesome!" Rhia exclaimed.

"Now can we get something to eat?" Mimi whined. Rhia and Amanda did an Anime fall.

"SHADOW wins!"

"STAR wins!"

Heather and Crystal wre arguing at the bottom of Mt. Ozone about who won the race. Shadow and Star looked at each other and exchanged glances.

"Okay, it was a tie. We'll both split the lunch cost." Heather declared.

"Sounds good to me." Crystal agreed.

"Let's go Blastoise!" Gary said releasing his Pokemon.

"Hmmm...who should I chose...." Jessie thought outloud. Her Rapidash whinnied. "Okay Blazer, you seem to be up for it. I choose you!"

"Okay, this is a one on one! If Gary wins, we get to rest here. If Jessie wins, then I minus well head to the next restaurant..." His voice trailed off like he was going to sleep.

"BENNY!" Gary cried.

"Wha?! Oh, begin!"

"Blastoise, use Hydro Pump!" Gary commanded.

"Blastoise!" It aimed a Hydro Pump straight at Blazer.

"Blazer dodge!" Jessie said. Blazer jumped out of the way in the nick of time as the Hydro Pump hit the wall. "Use Stomp!" Blazer charged at full speed and leaped into the air. It stomped onto Blastoise's head and left Blastoise with a throbbing red mark.

"Blastoise use Rapid Spin!" Gary ordered through gritted teeth. Blastoise tucked its hands, feet and head into its shell and charged at Blazer.

"Blazer, use Flire Spin!" Jessie shouted. Blazer whinnied and let out a spinning rage of fire.

"Blastoise, keep going through the fire!" Blastiose hurled through the Fire Spin at full speed, ready to attack.

"Blazer, dodge!"

"What?!" Gary exclaimed with a sweat drop. Blastoise, unaware that Blazer had gotten out of the way, was still hurtling through the air.

And straight towards the wall.

SLAM!

Blastoise lay against the wall, dazed and confused.

"Unfortunately, the victory goes to Jessie..." Benny said quietly.

"Man, that it one weak Blastoise..." Jesie murmured.

"Whaddya just say?" Gary asked suspiciously.

"Uh, I mean, even though I won the battle, I'll still allow you to rest up here and I will even let you have some decent food!" she said.

"YES!" Benny shouted, his eyes full of hope once again.

"Yeah, I guess we could," Gary whispered as he returned Blastoise to its Pokeball.

"Wow, look at the view..." Brendan said, amazed at the sunset on the lake. Latia produced a smile and lifted Brendan off his feet. She flew high into the sky, with Brendan screaming his head off. Then he realized that Latia was trying to show him how the view looked from the sky. Latia flew to a nearby cliff, and dropped Brendan off there. He smiled and she gave him a thumbs up with her little claw. Then, the ground underneath him gave way and sent him tumbling into nothingness. Latia swooped down and caught him. She gave a nod of approval and descended toward Mt. Ozone. Brendan held on, and embraced himself for the landing.

"Hey, ya wanna see something really cool?" Crystal asked Heather.

"Uhhh, sure."

"FFWWWWEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE!" she whistled by putting her two fingers in her mouth. Overhead Latia heard the sound and descended toward Heather and Crystal.

WHOOSH!

Latia appeared out of nowhere with Brendan by her side.

"Whoa, howja do that?" Heather asked.

"Wait, there's more." She whistled again and they waited.

Suddenly, a Pokemon again appeared outta nowhere.

"Lady and Gentleman, meet the fabulous duo, Latia and Latio!" Crystal announced.

Latia and Latio waved and both gave thumbs up signs.

"So, Brendan what are you doing here?"

"Nothing, really..." he muttered.

"I say we go out tonight!" Heather shouted putting a fist in the air.

"What, like a restaurant?" Brendan said.

"Yeah!"

"Cool, where are we gonna go?" Crystal questioned.

"I didn't think of that..." Heather replied quietly with her head drooping down. Crystal and Brendan looked at each other with sweatdrops.

"But since Brendan is coming along, who's gonna pay for it?"

"ROCK PAPER SCISSORS!!!" Heather screamed.

They all agreed. They counted to 3. All rock. Next. All scissors. Next. All paper. Next.....blah, blah, balh.

"Unless you guys haven't noticed....this is getting up nowhere."

"Then a fight to the finish!" Brendan and Heather declared which left Crystal with a surprised look. "We'll BATTLE!" they said.

"Loser of the last battle buys lunch."

"Ley's get dis battle in da house!" Heather cried.

9 - Sterling

Gary and Benny had finished eating when Jesie chimed in.

"I need to go to Mytha City to get something! Can you watch over the gym?! I trust that you two, especially you (points to Gary) won't do anything stupid..."

"It's all in good hands..." Garys said proudly.

"Right...." Jesie said uncertainly. She went into the front of the gym and called her Rapidash. She jumped on and they galloped toward Mytha City. "I hope that sneaky thief doesn't come and steal all my potions..."

"What could possibly go wrong?" Gary thought to himself.

Crystal had already won the first battle and was now watching Heather and Brendan face off.

"Go Windy!" Brendan said with a flick of a pokeball.

"Let's win this Luny!" Heather shouted.

"This battle will be between Heather and her Lunatone and Brendan and his Aireon (my made up Flying type eevee evo), no time limit. Let the battle begin!" Crystal announced.

"Luny, start things off with an Ice Beam!" Heather commanded.

"Lune!" It shot a power blue beam straight toward Windy.

"Dodge!" Brendan ordered. Aireon got out of the way as the Ice Beam hit the ground and froze a chunk of grass. "Now Steel Wing!"

"Air!" Windy's wings glew a silver color and it flew right into Luny, scoring a direct hit.

"Grrrr..." Heather growled through gritted teeth. "Luny Psychic!" Luny's eyes glew and it lifted Windy into the air. It threw it into the nearest tree and it slammed into the branches. No one could see the Aireon because the view was blocked by the thick leaves.

Brendan had the perfect opportunity. "Windy, Gust attack!" At first nothing happened, but then the wind kicked up and the leaves blew off the tree with such speed that they looked like Razor Leaves. The leaves bounced and scraped against Luny's rock body and it struggled to keep its eye open. Windy zoomed straight forward and Heather screamed "Rock Throw!" Luny gathered a bunch of rocks around it and waited to strike.

"Windy, counter with Iron Tail!" Brendan ordered. Windy, flying at full speed, obeyed its trainer. Its tail glew and it kept flying.

"Strike!" they both commanded in unison. Windy did a mid-air somersault hitting Luny with the Iron Tail while Luny smashed into Windy with a bunch of rocks. The collision caused an explosion and a huge blast of smoke appeared.

After the smoke cleared, Crystal saw that both Pokemon were down. "This battle is a draw!" She declared. But it was not over yet.

Brendan and Heather had went after each other and started to fight. RAndom kicks and punches were thrown into the air and Crystal saw there was an even bigger problem. Neither one of them knew it but they were just about to run off a cliff!

"Heather, wait, stop! Brendan-hey listen!" Crystal cried.

But it was too late. They had already fallen and were headed straight toward a rocky, unpleasant, death. Thinking as fast as lightning, Crystal told Latia and Latio to use Psychic. Heather and Brendan felt themselves floating back toward the land. They stood there staring at Crystal, like zombies. She saw that Brendan had two black eyes and Heather had a giant bruise on her right arm and Crystal swore she was missing a tooth.

"Okay...let's get back to the gym..." They both stared at her and stepped forward and collapsed onto the grass. "Hoo boy, okay, Latio get Brendan and Latia get Heather. The two Pokemon let the fallen gym leaders ride on their backs while they headed to the clinic.

***

"Well, the next Gym is in Cinder Town..." Amanda said, looking at the map. "We're also close to there!" The threesome had already eaten and were headed to their next battle.

"Have you already challenged the leader?" Rhia asked Amanda.

"Not yet. Seeing as I have a lot of traveling to do I have to keep my hunger in order!"

"I hope it will be a lot easier than Sterling that we jsut battled." Mimi snorted.

"Sterling?" Amanda asked.

"Yeah, like sterling silver. He hates it when I called him that." she relpied. Amanda just shrugged her shoulders.

"LOOK OUT!" A girl on a Rapidash was about to run into them. Amazingly, instead of just going past them, the rider commanded her flaming horse to jump right over them. They all watched as the horse disappeared into the distance.

"Man, that was cool, can she to that again?!" Amanda said cheerfully. Rhia and Mimi glared at her. "Just kiddin', okay...back to the map.

***

Silver snuck around the corner of the Cinder Town gym. Instead of his gym clothes he wore his regular wardrobe: navy blue fleece shirt, boots....blah, blah... He peered through the window and saw to oblivious idiots staring into the screen of the T.V. He smiled and found his way to another window, which had no inhabitants. He pushed the window frame up quietly and slipped inside.

The room he was standing in was pretty vacant, nothing but a couple of chairs and whatnot. He looked down the hallway and sneaked to the gym's clininc, where potions and pokeballs were stored. Silver saw there was a convenient box filled with potions and elixers. He snatched the whole box and was out the gym in a flash. Gary or Benny didn't realize anything...

As Silver was outside he was greeted by the looks of three confused trainers.

"Yo Sterling, what are you doin' here?!"

He made his escape and Rhia, Amanda, and Mimi followed in pursuit.
