1 - Untitled

I do not know how far I've run,

I do not know to where.

I will keep running `til my life is done,

The wind blows through my hair.

The trees fly past as blurs of gray,

Smoke rises to the south.

I want so bad to stop and stay,

But soon smoke fills my mouth.

I know not why I run away,

Run far away from my pack.

The sky turns colors like black and gray,

Some snow falls on my back.

Man by day, wolf by night,

Hunted either way.

I try so hard to stand and fight,

But, finally, dead I lay.
