Dead but Alive

Daydreams dancing on the water,
Moonbeams making the night sing softer.
The wind blowing sweet whispering songs,
A life of day is what she longs.
Bitten by evil in the dark,
Left her body with his mark.
Disturbed her deadly rest,
She now lives in a darken nest.
Forced to kill for crimson blood,
Making it drip like a gory flood.
Her innocence stolen, no more light,
Now in darkness, a creature of the night.
Living her life abandoned by her sire,
A depressing life of a true vampire.
