These are a series of songs I wrote for a graphic novel I am working on called SOCOM 2035. Tears reminded me of these songs, as the poem appears in one of the books. Please feel free to comment in any way, shape, or form, but please keep any flames to a minimum.

Here's some background on the story, just so the songs make sense:

Lieutenant Jason Wolfe: Commander of SEAL Team 7, 2nd Platoon (AKA the Wolfe Pack)

Petty Officer Stephanie Edgars: A medic on Wolfe's team

Here's a little detail on how their relationship unfolded:

Volume 2: Wolfe stops an enemy general from raping Edgars

Volume 3: Wolfe says "Angels really do exist" after he barely (emphasis on barely) survives a double-dose of a lethal poison

Volume 7: Wolfe blocks an attack meant for Edgars and kills his attacker, but ultimately dies from his opponent's attack

Volume 8: Edgars mourns Wolfe's passing (some strong emotions expressed there)

Volume 9: Out of grief, Edgars tries to kill herself, but is stopped by a resurrected Wolfe

Volume 13: Wolfe sends Edgars to Annapolis, but she returns two years later after thinking he was dead. The two mate and Edgars loses her human ears (they're replaced by wolf ears)

1 - A Whisper in the Darkness

A Whisper in the Darkness©

By Jason Mimiaga

A whisper in the darkness
catches in her hair she rushes down to meet him but he is not there

When she remembers that he is gone
she can't hold back the tears All alone in darkness his words are all she hears

On memories she drifts on back to the first time that she cried He told her that he loved her right before he died

A whisper in the darkness
catches in her hair
she tells it to go way but no one else is there

Why'd he have to die for me is all that she can say he traded his life for mine to protect me that day

Why'd I have to follow why couldn't I just stay Because I couldn't listen
I took his life away

A whisper in the darkness
Sends a shiver down her spine He wraps his arms around her and says she'll be just fine

When she looks into his eyes
she can't hold back the tears
His reassuring embrace

Helps chase away her fears

In memories she drifts on back to the day he died
he told her that he loved her that he'd never leave her side

brings her deeper in his arms he says as long as I am with you I'll keep you safe from harm

Why'd you have to die for me she asks him tonight I traded my life for yours
I did what was right

Why'd I have to follow
You didn't have to stay
Because I couldn't listen
I spent my life that day

A whisper in the darkness
catches in her hair
as he kisses her softly she knows he'll always be there

2 - He Walks Alone in Darkness

He Walks Alone in Darkness

By Jason Mimiaga

He walks alone in darkness
his soul empty and cold gone's the fire in his heart that once burned brave and bold

So this is how it ends today so much is left unsaid he spoke these words into her ears cause he knew he'd soon be dead

When he looks back on that day he remembers how she cried when he told her that he loved her just before he died

He walks alone in darkness his soul shattered and lost when he moved to protect her he knew what it would cost

He ran his hand on down her cheek and chased away her fears she held him tight until the end her eyes still filled with tears

Every time she heard his name his voice is all she hears she lost the man she loved that day she can't stop the tears

He walks alone in darkness his soul is on the mend because he gave his life for hers the rules of death he'll bend

She calls his name when she wakes up frightened and alone she thinks that he will come for her that he will soon be home

When she sees there's no-one there all she can do is cry
when she remembers that he is gone all she wants to do is die

He walks alone in darkness
his arms around her now He knows that he loves her he has to tell her how

As he looks into her eyes her voice he hears tonight
Why'd you have to die for me
I did what was right

He walks alone in darkness
his lover in his arms as long as I am with you I'll keep you safe from harm

A soldier's love and sacrifice helped save her life that day So she could see tomorrow he gave his life away

Even in the darkest night his soul just will not rest everyday will challenge him his love they'll always test

They walk alone in darkness her eyes are full of fear a gentle kiss from his lips helps hold back her tears

3 - Now That You Are Gone

Now That You Are Gone

By Jason Mimiaga

I want to feel your arms around my waist
I want you to keep me warm
As you hold me in your strong embrace I want to know I'm safe from harm

I want to gaze up into your eyes
As you gently stroke my hair
I want to hear you whisper "I love you"
I want to know that you'll be there

But I know that that's impossible
When I remember that you're gone
I watched you die there in my arms
And now I can't go on

How can I keep on living Knowing you're not here
How can I feel safe again When all I know is fear

I still feel your breath on my ear
I can hear your voice tonight
You said you'd never leave my side You said I'd be alright

But I know that that's impossible
When I remember what it cost I watched you give your life away
And now I feel so lost

When I felt your hand right on my face I'd never felt so weak I had no courage left in me
As you slid it down my cheek

Nothing will ever stop the tears Everytime I think of you I wish that I could go back there

And start the day anew

But I know that that's impossible
When I remember how you died I watched you trade your life for mine
And now I want to hide

I can feel your arms around me now
As you whisper in my ear Standing in your strong embrace You've chased away my fears

When I gaze into your eyes
All I can do is cry Knowing that you're there for me
Even though I watched you die

But I know that that's impossible
All I want to know is how
I watched you die there in my arms
How can you be here now

I said I'd never leave you That I'd always be right here So even when I died that day You didn't have to fear

As I gaze into your eyes
Even though I watched you die
You're here with me to stay forever
And I don't care how or why

I don't care if it's impossible
As I stand here in your grip You're here to stay forevermore
As you gently kiss my lips
