TO LUCRETIA & JAMES

and the all-powerful muse

The world bows at her Will;

Her touch- immensely powerful.

Yet alone she stands there

On the Hill

Abandoned

By the ones she once knew.

So potent was her mind

That she turned them against her;

All because she fell in love,

With a wayward man,

Who could not prove

The good that resides inside him.

So, through him,

She turned evil;

Giving up

The life she once knew.

And they ignored her

Screaming

leaving her to die in peril.
