0 - The end of Domino High

Yugi ran to school
He had to run fast
Otherwise his teachers
Would want to talk to him after class.

He dodged all the bushes and ran into a few trees
And had to say to everybody
"Could you move , please?"

He remembered last night
He remembered what Joey said
" Yug' I want to tell you before you hit the bed,"

" After all this Egyptian stuff
And I'm not pretending
We will stay by your side and will help to make your happy ending"

Yugi smiled at thought
Then he began to choke
Something was burning
Everywhere there was smoke

He ran to school and made it
He looked at Domino High
It was covered with a roaring fire
And he began to cry

He knew his friends were in there and they were probably all dead
" 5 people have already died "
The news repoter said.

He heard alarms and shouts
He heard a piercing scream
And he knew no longer
That he would not be in a team

He walked outside into the park
And he had friendship bracelet he had been bending

He looked at the sky and asked
"What happned to my happy ending?"
