Chapter 1 - Deja Vu

2

1 - Deja Vu

Every morning when I wake up
'Soon as my feet hit the floor,
I get that familiar feeling
That I've done all of this before
And it's hard to just look past it,
Nothin' new to do or to say.
So I'm stuck in the same ol' story,
Day after day after day after dayyy...

AND NOW I'M
Losing all sensation
MAKING
Useless observations
AS I
Show no hesitation
To break down, to break do-own.

(Chorus)
And I'm not quite sure what's
Been going on,
But it's been going on for way to long
It's like my life's just
A broken record
Playing the same damn song.
And I don't know why it's
Happening to me,
But there's not much that I can do,
All I know is that tomorrow's gonna be
Just another Deja Vu

Now, don't try say it's different,
'Cause ya know as well as me,
That now and then and forever,
It's repeated history.
So I just try to go on.
And I try to find a way
To keep my life from becoming
The same as it was yesterdayyy...

AND NOW I
Feel the desperation
DEALING

With all of the frustration
AND GIVE
Into temptation,
And break down, I break do-own.

(Chorus)

And I find it so redundant
And I find it kinda strange,
That no matter what I alter,
There's nothing I can change.
But still, I keep on living,
Or existing, I should say.
'Cause I can't see what seperates
Tomorrow from todayyy...

Because it's just another (Ya know it's just another)
Yea, it's just another dayyy...(Spoken: Didn't we already say that?)
ANOTHER DAY OF DEJA VU!
