The Spirit Tree

Intro

The Spirit Tree is a nickname for its true name The Tree of Life. This tree is both living and dead; it takes lives and gives lives. If you touch this tree you lose your soul or your true spirit will come out that or you lose it.

In this story each chapter is about a different person whom life has been taking by this tree. The story will tell you about the persons past and what happened after the person touches the tree. This tree never dies, so each person is from a different time.

In this story each chapter and each person has an important part in this story. This intro will be an important part of this story, and might help you in this story.
